Grocery store shelves have been wiped clean as many people prepare to work from home amid the coronavirus outbreaks in their area. Fred Meyer is hiring positions to help with restocking during this busy time.

If you or someone you know is in need of work at this time, check out Fred Meyer's website. Many local businesses and gig-economy jobs are suffering as more people gear up to stay home amid the coronavirus.

Many positions for e-commerce clerks are posted. It is a part-time position with no education required. It requires the workers to select and gather products for customers' online orders, process coupons and payment, and deliver and load orders to cars when customers arrive at store for pick up.
